

ROTARY CLUB OF COROWA

VOLUME 72 ISSUE 29

WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 23/1/2011

PRESIDENT: DAVID POTTS

Last Meeting

Guest speaker Staffan Svensson (Charlotte's brother) from Sweden gave a talk on university life in Sweden. Staffan is studying Agricultural Economics at the Swedish University of Agricultural Science in Uppsala. This is a 5 year course and is recognised throughout Europe.

Life at uni sounds rather good with sports being played between students from other European Unis as well as a fight between the local uni drunks and the abstainers to see who can best decorate the surrounds. Staffan came to Australia late last year to study farming in this country. After working in Lameroo S.A., he is now working at Coreen with David & Gloria Talbot who he assured us are very good to work for.

Chairman Chris, Staffan, Pres. David

(Chris Erickson has his roots in Sweden. His grandfather met an Irish girl and came here many years ago. Chris didn't say whether this was to run away or whether he brought the girl.)

Attendance

90.4% with nothing to sing about.

I married Miss Right.

I just didn't know her first name was "Always."

Man: "I'd like to call you. What's your number?"

Woman: "It's in the phone book."

Man: "But I don't know your name."

Woman: "That's in the phone book too."

Man: "Hey, come on, we're both here at this bar for the same reason."

Woman: "Yeah! Let's pick up some chicks!"

Man: "If I could see you naked, I'd die happy:

Woman: "Yeah, but if I saw you naked, I'd probably die laughing."

Man: "I would go to the end of the world for you.

Woman: "Yes, but would you stay there?"

A man is talking to the family doctor. "Doc, I think my wife's going deaf." The doctor answers, "Well, here's something you can try on her to test her hearing. Stand some distance away from her and ask her a question. If she doesn't answer, move a little closer and ask again. Keep repeating this until she answers. Then you'll be able to tell just how hard of hearing she really is."

The man goes home and tries it out. He walks in the door and says, "Honey, what's for dinner?" He doesn't hear an answer, so he moves closer to her.

"Honey, what's for dinner?" Still no answer. He repeats this several times, until he's standing just a few feet away from her.

Finally, she answers, "For the eleventh time, I said we're having MEATLOAF!"

A man called to testify at the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), asked his accountant for advice on what to wear.

"Wear your shabbiest clothing. Let him think you are a pauper," the accountant replied.

Then he asked his lawyer the same question, but got the opposite advice. "Do not let them intimidate you. Wear your most elegant suit and tie."

Confused, the man went to his Priest, told him of the conflicting advice, and requested some resolution of the dilemma. "Let me tell you a story," replied the Priest.

"A woman, about to be married, asked her mother what to wear on her wedding night. 'Wear a heavy, long, flannel nightgown that goes right up to your neck.' But when she asked her best friend, she got conflicting advice. Wear your most sexy negligee, with a V neck right down to your navel."

The man protested: "What does all this have to do with my problem with the IRS?!"

"Simple", replied the Priest...

"It doesn't matter what you wear, you are going to get screwed!"
