80 Years of Service

Service Above Self

20/03/2020: Issue 81. Number 34

Covid-19 pandemic

The changing nature of the Covid-19 pandemic, the latest advice from the authorities, together with the closure of the Corowa RSL Club, is impacting us all.

My first duty as your president, is the safety of all our members, and their families. I therefore reluctantly, have decided that all future meetings of the club will be suspended until further notice. Whilst we all value the fellowship of our meetings, given the age profile of our members, I believe it is simply not worth the risk. The speed at which events, and advice, are changing means that I will be in contact as soon as it is safe for us to meet.

Please stay safe, sensible and calm.

Yours in Rotary Service

Paul Miegel

DIVERSIONAL ENTERTAINMENT

Old grandma and peanuts An old grandma brings a bus driver a bag of peanuts every day. First the bus driver enjoyed the peanuts but after a week of eating them he asked: “Please granny, don’t bring me peanuts anymore. Have them yourself.” The granny answers: “You know, I don’t have teeth anymore. I just prefer to suck the chocolate around them.”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Ask no questions and hear no lies </li> <li> Divide and conquer </li> <li> Never put off until tomorrow what you can avoid all together </li> <li> Being cool, is not trying to be cool </li> <li> It’s good to be clever, but not to show it *</li> </ul>
A student burst into his professor’s office and says; “Professor Stigler, I don’t believe I deserve this F you’ve given me.” To which Stigler replied, “I agree, but unfortunately it is the lowest grade the University will allow me to award.”	An out-of-towner drove his car into a ditch in a desolated area. Luckily, a local farmer came to help with his big strong horse named Buddy. He hitched Buddy up to the car and yelled, “Pull, Nellie, pull!” Buddy didn’t move. Then the farmer hollered, “Pull, Buster, pull!” Buddy didn’t respond. Once more the farmer commanded, “Pull, Coco, pull!” Nothing. Then the farmer nonchalantly said, “Pull, Buddy, pull!” And the horse easily dragged the car out of the ditch. The motorist was most appreciative and very curious. He asked the farmer why he called his horse by the wrong name three times. The farmer said, “Oh, Buddy is blind and if he thought he was the only one pulling, he wouldn’t even try!”
A little boy and a little girl attended the same school and became friends. Every day they would sit together to eat their lunch. They discovered that they both brought turkey sandwich every day! This went on all through the fourth and fifth grades until one day he noticed that her sandwich wasn’t a turkey sandwich. He said, “Hey, how come you’re not eating turkey, don’t you like it anymore?” She said, “I love it, but I have to stop eating it.” “Why?” he said. She pointed to her lap and said, “Cause I’m starting to grow little feathers down there!” “Let me see” he said. “Okay” and she pulled up her skirt, he looked and said, “That’s right you are, better not eat any more turkey.” He kept eating his turkey sandwiches until one day he brought peanut butter. He said to the little girl, “I have to stop eating turkey. I’m starting to get feathers down there too.” She asked if she could look so he pulled down his pants for her. She said “Oh, my God, it’s too late for you, you’ve already got the neck and gizzards!!!”	A retailer was dismayed when a competitor selling the same type of product opened next-door to him, displaying a large sign proclaiming “Best Deals”. Not long after he was horrified to find yet another competitor moves in next-door, on the other side of his store. Its large sign was even more disturbing- “Lowest Prices”. After his initial panic, and concern that he would be driven out of business, he looked for a way to turn the situation to his marketing advantage. Finally, an idea came to him. Next day, he proudly unveiled a new and huge sign over his front door. It read, “Main Entrance”!
