

ROTARY CLUB OF COROWA

VOLUME 72 ISSUE 6

WEEKLY BULLETIN

PRINTED 2/8/2010

PRESIDENT: DAVID POTTS

LAST MEETING

Ian Carrington – ‘My Life’. Born in Ringwood, Vic., Ian was buying and selling lawn mowers via the ‘Trading Post’ at the age of 14. By the ripe old age of 16 he was racing motor bikes which he continued to do, until he saw the light and gave it away after many broken bones and the arrival of a daughter. He started work with the P.M.G. at 16 and continued with the same organisation with its various name changes for 30 years. In 2001 he started his own business in Melbourne as a consultant. He moved to Corowa 12 months ago with his wife, Trish.

(DID ANYONE HEAR (or care) HOW CARLTON WENT ON SATURDAY? ... No?)

International Toast

Paul proposed a toast to Rotary District 3292 (Nepal)

Rotary

Howard spoke on the role of the Sgt. At Arms and the many duties the job entailed.

Fines

Fine session was once again run by acting Sgt. Steve, who once again ripped everyone off just because he could. (BIG School bursaries this year)

Raffles

1. Won by Wal
2. Won and lost by Graeme C.

Food for thought.

After an exhaustive review of the research literature, here's the final word on nutrition and health:

1. Japanese eat very little fat and suffer fewer heart attacks than us.
2. Mexicans eat a lot of fat and suffer fewer heart attacks than us.
3. Chinese drink very little red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than us.
4. Italians drink excessive amounts of red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than us.
5. Germans drink beer and eat lots of sausages and fats and suffer fewer heart attacks than us.
6. The French eat foie-gras, full fat cheese and drink red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than us

CONCLUSION: Eat and drink whatever you like. Speaking English is apparently what kills.

Next Dinner

A man entered the bar in the Carlton Football Club rooms and ordered a drink. The bar had a robot bartender.

The robot served him a perfectly prepared cocktail, and then asked him, "What's your IQ?"

The man replied, "150", and the robot proceeded to make conversation about global warming, quantum physics and spirituality, biomimicry, environmental interconnectedness, string theory and nano-technology.

The customer was very impressed and thought, "This is really cool.", and decided to test the robot. He walked out of the bar, turned around, and came back in for another drink.

Again, the robot served him the perfectly prepared drink and asked him, "What's your IQ?"

"About a 100," the man responded.

Immediately the robot started talking, but this time about football, the Bathurst 1000, cricket, supermodels, favourite fast foods, guns, and the like.

Really impressed, the man left then walked in again.

"What's your IQ?" the robot asks.

"Er, 50, I think."

And the robot responded, very, very slowly, "So, I expect you'll be following Collingwood again this year?"
