International Toast: The Rotary Club of Stockholm International is a young, vibrant member of the Rotary International family. Started in May 2003, the club is located in Stockholm, Sweden's capital city, and is the only Rotary club in Stockholm that conducts its meetings in English. The membership is international, culturally diverse and often has representatives from foreign embassies as well as from the business, professional, vocational and artistic sectors.

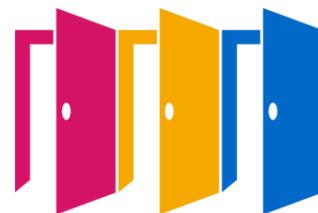

GUEST SPEAKER: Charlotte Sveenson Rotary exchange student 2008-2009
Charlotte said that she learnt a lot during her time as an exchange student in Corowa it was a wonderful experience and from it she has made many friends. Charlotte would recommend any young student if offered the opportunity to do Rotary student exchange. When Charlotte arrived back home she was focussed in studying so that she could see the world. After high school she went to university and studied law and even got the opportunity to do an exchange to Canada during this time. After graduating in law Charlotte practices in International property law then worked in family law for 8-9 months. It was during her time at local law court that she decided that she wanted to become a judge and started working at the court of appeal as a junior judge overseeing criminal cases, family law and custody hearings. Charlotte now lives in a town called Hämösand is a locality and the seat of Hämösand Municipality in Västernorrland County, Sweden with 17,556 inhabitants in 2010. It is called "the gate to the High Coast" because of the world heritage landscape just a few miles north of Hämösand. Hämösand is the seat of the Diocese of Hämösand. Charlotte lives across the road from her local court and her partner Malte travels to the court of appeal which is a 45 minute drive away. Charlotte reflects on her time spent in Australia often. Last time she visited was in 2011 but hopes to be able to travel soon and bring back her partner. One of her many special memories are the Rock to Reef trip she got to take in Australia.

On a golf tour in Ireland, Tiger Woods drives his BMW into a petrol station in a remote part of the Irish countryside.

The pump attendant obviously knows nothing about golf, greets him in a typical Irish manner completely unaware of who the golfing pro is.

Top of the mornin' to yer, sir" says the attendant.

Tiger nods a quick "hello" and bends forward to pick up the nozzle.

As he does so, two tees fall out of his shirt pocket onto the ground.

"What are dose? asks the attendant.

"They're called tees" replies Tiger.

"Well, what on the god's earth are dey for?" inquires the Irishman.

"They're for resting my balls on when I'm driving", says Tiger.

"Fookin Jaysus", says the Irishman, "BMW thinks of everything

A drunk goes to court. The judge says, 'You've been brought here for drinking.' The drunk says, 'Great. Let's get started.'

Working people frequently ask retired people what they do to make their days interesting. Well, for example, the other day my wife and I went into town and went into a shop. We were only in there for about 5 minutes. When we came out, there was a cop writing out a parking ticket. We went up to him and said, "Come on man, how about giving a senior citizen a break?" He ignored us and continued writing the ticket. I called him a Nazi turd. He glared at me and started Writing another ticket for having worn tires. So my wife called him a *-head. He finished the second ticket and put it on the windshield with the first. Then he started writing a third ticket. This went on for about 20 minutes. The more we abused him, the more tickets he wrote. Personally, we didn't care. We came into town by bus.
