International Toast 19th January 2022 - Graham Brown

I would like to propose a toast to President Klaus Hofmann and the Rotary Club of Aschaffenburg.

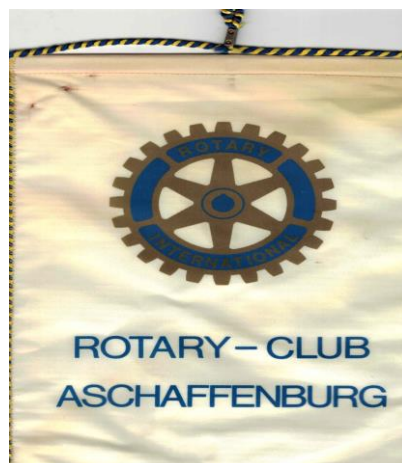

Aschaffenburg is a city in Bavaria, Germany on the River Main, some 50 km upstream from Frankfurt. It is well known for its 17th Century Schloss Johannisburg and its replica Roman villa Pompejanum, which has mosaics and ancient artworks on display.

Our Club has a banner from Aschaffenburg Rotary Club in our collection, which is now recorded on our website. The story behind it is lost. However, as our Club hosted youth exchange students on tour in the early 1980's - according to Archives - perhaps it was presented back then.

The major projects of the Aschaffenburg Rotary Club include the provision of water connections for a school in Madagascar and providing technology equipment for young people in local schools.

My connection with Aschaffenburg is that I cycled the cycle trail beside the River Main through Aschaffenburg on the first day of my three-month cycle of Southern Germany back in 2014. I stopped for refreshment at a cafe with the unlikely name of Schmacho Kiosk, which was towered over by the high walls of the Schloss.

I give you: President Klaus Hofmann and the Rotary Club of Aschaffenburg,

Many years ago in Scotland, a new game was invented. It was ruled 'Gentlemen
