Rotary Club of Casablanca - Morocco

Rotary Club of Casablanca, was established in 1930

Their last President was Youssef Harouchi (2022/23)

They meet in the Hotel Hyatt Regence, Casablanca

The club has 45 members. Only one female member they are nearly all company directors, doctors, accountants and consultants to the government

As part of their activities, they organize several cultural and economic events to help people in need.

They also contribute to the financing of several social projects as part of the INDH program which was initiated by His Majesty King Mohammed VI

Some of the Projects are

- 1) the fight against illiteracy,
- 2) the supply of drinking water in villages,
- 3) the renovation of schools and colleges;
- 4) Health-related topics such as poliomyelitis and thalassemia or support in the acquisition of medical equipment.

To enable them to carry out their actions, they rely on the generosity of their members. They also organize galas and cultural or social events to raise funds for their projects which are mainly water supplies in remote areas. Both inside Morocco and in neighboring countries.
