30 August Canakkale Rotary Club Swim

The Turkish Republic commemorates Victory Day on 30 August every year with a series of formal parades and other events around the Turkey. 30 August is also the date for the Canakkale Rotary Club's annual Dardanelles Swim – a major sporting event that attracts around 500 Turkish and international competitors who attempt to swim across the Dardanelles and thereby swim from Europe to Asia. Every year a large contingent of Australians take part, with many successfully completing the swim. The Australian Consul, Nicholas Sergi was invited to present medals to several young female swimmers competing in the 20-25 years age category.

Naughty or Nice

What's that old saying?

"I find friendship to be like wine, raw and new, ripened with age, the true old man's milk, & restorative cordial."
