"Service before self - He profits most who serves Best"

Celebrating 75 Years of Serving the Community

Weekly Bulletin Louise Wetterlundh - Inbound Swedish Exchange Student

This weeks speaker was our Inbound Exchange Student; Louise Wetterlundh from Sweden. Louise spoke about Sweden, her herself and her family. Louise is aged 17 and her sponsor club is Stockholm Grand. Stockholm Grand was chartered in 1926 and was the first Rotary club in Sweden. They meet every Tuesday at the Stockholm Grand Hotel and included The Swedish King, Gustaf 16th as a member.

Louise talked about Sweden its culture (ABBA & IKEA) and the demographics of the country. (Population, Government and Geography.)

Louise lives in a suburb of Stockholm named Taby and her home is in a place called Nasbypark. Nasbypark is part of the Stockholm archipelago and is close to the lakes, forest and the city.

Her family consists of her Dad (Frederick), Mum (Charlotte) and Sister (Ebba). She mentioned her grandfathers are also Rotarians and her Dad was a Rotary exchange student to Perth.

Louise loves to be active and has a passion for dance, skiing, photography and her youth group at her local church. She is an active leader and very studious. She loves to travel and has a philosophy that her life is like a "backpack" and her aim is to fill that backpack with memories and adventures by travelling and experiencing all life has to offer!

In the future she wishes to travel, volunteer, work the ski resorts, go to university, study Law and be an old lady full of adventures and stories.

Louise thanked our Rotary Club for hosting her and her host families. She is very happy to be in Corowa and has settled into the town, school and Rotary life well.

The Arrogance of Authority

A DEA officer stopped at a ranch in Texas and talked with an old rancher. He told the rancher, "I need to inspect your ranch for illegally grown drugs."

The rancher said, "Okay, but don't go in that field over there...", as he pointed out the location.

The DEA officer verbally exploded saying, "Mister, I have the authority of the Federal Government with me!" Reaching into his rear pants pocket, the arrogant officer removed his badge and proudly displayed it to the rancher. "See this f*g badge? This badge means I am allowed to go wherever I wish... On any land! No questions asked or answers given!! Have I made myself clear... do you understand?"

The rancher nodded politely, apologized, and went about his chores. A short time later, the old rancher heard loud screams, looked up and saw the DEA officer running for his life, being chased by the rancher's big Santa Gertrudis Bull...

With every step the bull was gaining ground on the officer and it seemed likely that he'd sure enough get gored before he reached safety. The officer was clearly terrified.

The rancher threw down his tools, ran to the fence and yelled at the top of his lungs...
(I just love this part...)

"Your badge, show him your f*g BADGE...!"

Sick Leave

I urgently needed a few days off work,
 But, I knew the Boss would not allow me to take leave.

I thought that maybe if I acted "Crazy"
 Then he would tell me to take a few days off.
 So, I hung upside-down on the ceiling and made funny noises.

My BLONDE co-worker asked me what I was doing. I told her that I was pretending to be a light bulb, so that the Boss might think I was "Crazy" and give me a few days off.

A few minutes later the Boss came into the office and asked,
 "What in the name of good GOD are you doing?"
 I told him I was a light bulb.

He said, "You are clearly stressed out.
 Go home and recuperate for a couple of days."
 I jumped down and walked out of the office...

When my co-worker (the blonde) followed me, the Boss asked her,

"... And where do you think you're going?!"
(You're gonna love this...)

She said, "I'm going home too. I can't work in the dark!"
