Celebrating 75 Years of Serving the Community

Weekly Bulletin Christmas Party!!!

This weeks' meeting saw the annual Christmas Party of the Rotary Club of Corowa. This year's party was held at the Corowa Chocolate and Whiskey Factory. All had a great time and we even had a few surprise guests who sang a few Xmas Carols before our meal. After dinner Mitchell Druce, (Dean's apparently smarter and better looking younger brother) gave our Club a tour of the chocolate factory. Thanks Mitch!! A big thank you to Meredith Miegel who organised the event and for all the others who helped with the decorations and set up.

Dear Corowa Rotary Club members,

I would like to remind all members that the Club as a whole is hosting our lovely exchange student Louise, not just the host families. Therefore, it would be good if Louise could be invited to accompany any member of the Club if they or their family is doing anything of interest. For example, a picnic on the river; water skiing; a trip to Beechworth, Yarrawonga or Glenrowan; a picnic in the Warby ranges; a farm visit; a visit to Melbourne would all be great activities.

Louise had been looking forward to the Regional Tour which was being organised by the YE Committee. Unfortunately it fell through, so Louise has been very disappointed that she has not the opportunity to see regional centres – Canberra, Wagga, Ballarat, the Great Ocean Road etc.

Now that Louise is nearing holiday time, not only would her weekends be free but much of January could also be available.

Check with Louise – she is a very organised young lady and will have her diary to help her include your suggestion.

Her mobile number is 0458 957 888

Her email address is louise.wetterlundh@gmail.com

Many thanks

Margaret Brown
