"Service before self - He profits most who serves Best"

Celebrating 75 Years of Serving the Community

Weekly Bulletin Chris Gillard: Corowa Shire Council General Manager

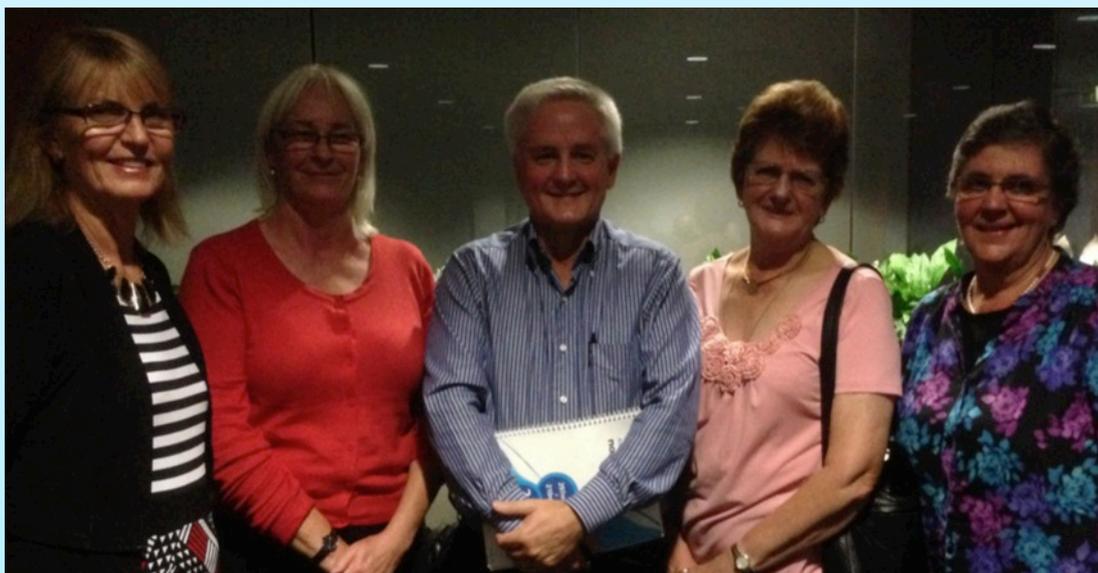

This week's meeting was at the Corowa RSL Club and our speaker was the new General Manager of the Corowa Shire Council, Chris Gillard. Chris spoke about his life and how he has ended up in Corowa.

Chris has 2 children and he and his wife are happy to be living back in a small country town. He has had many and varied jobs over many years, from paymaster, accounts and mowing lawns to various local councils jobs and working with the elderly and corporate services.

Chris wants a fresh start to his job and is looking at assessing the ways the council can save money from within and help to manage and distribute the resources of the shire to the community. He spoke on the need for the community to see how much we value the town. This has meant a service and property review to be undertaken within the shire. Chris spoke on the need for a review of the rates and the risk management of any programs/projects.

He has indicated that there is a small restructuring within the council so he can improve customer service and deal with complaints, which he feels is very important. Chris has been very impressed by the commitment, dedication and enthusiasm of the staff at the Corowa Shire Council. He is striving to take a commercial approach to help move the council forward and better the community.

Thank you Chris for speaking and we look forward to hearing from you again in the future.
